

How do you see the 'other'
discipline or research focus?
What associations and
metaphors do you have?

Your discipline or research focus

Your discipline or research focus

How do you see the 'other'
discipline or research focus?
What associations and
metaphors do you have?

Future(s) of collaboration

Pragmatically: Your own idea for a metaphor which could link these disciplines in future collaborations

Can you draw it?

Description / considerations

Future(s) of collaboration

Provocatively: Pick a New Metaphors image card (either at random, or one which intrigues you) — how could it work as a metaphor for future collaborations between your disciplines?

What could the implications be?

Place the card here
